Congregation - verses 1,2, and 4; Choir only - verse 3

Confession of Sin

Risen Lord, we have such good news to tell. For you have cast off your grave clothes and shattered the powers of sin and death. But we have heard this news before. How often have we let our "alleluias" fall silent as we passed through the church doors? How often have we returned to daily routines as if Easter changes nothing? How often have our actions belied the power of the resurrection to transform our world? Risen Lord, forgive our half-hearted witness. Free us from the bindings of fear or indifference, disappointment or disenchantment. Fill us with the light of resurrection and send us into the world to proclaim in word and deed that we have seen the Lord! Alleluia and amen!

Response No. 238 Thine Is the Glory JUDAS MACCABEUS
Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son; endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.
Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away, kept the folded grave clothes where thy body lay.
Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son; endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.

“Who Will Roll Away the Stone?”

Affirmation of Faith

from A Declaration of Faith, 1977

We declare that Jesus Christ is Lord. His resurrection is a decisive victory over the powers that deform and destroy human life. His lordship is hidden. The world appears to be dominated by people and systems that do not acknowledge his rule. But his lordship is real. It demands our loyalty and sets us free from the fear of all lesser lords who threaten us. We maintain that ultimate sovereignty now belongs to Jesus Christ in every sphere of life. Jesus is Lord! He has been Lord from the beginning. He will be Lord at the end. Even now he is Lord. Amen.

JUDAS MACCABEUS

Lo! Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb; lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom.
Let the church with gladness hymns of triumph sing, for the Lord now liveth; death hath lost its sting.
Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son; endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.
